

Cold-Weather Shoes for Women

They are heavy enough to keep your feet warm and dry, without being stiff and clumsy. They look dressy, wear splendidly and feel easy. If you want something extra swell, buy any of these styles:

Patent Kid Button, swing toe, extension sole.....$4.00
Patent Kid Button or Lace, extension sole.....$3.50
Patent Kid Lace, turn sole, Cuban or French heel..$3.50

If you object to shiny leather the following grades will please you.

Sorosis Shoe, Vici Kid or Box Calf.....$3.50
Utz & Dunn's or Reed's Vici Kid Shoes.....$2.50 to $3.50
Brown's Vici Kid Shoes.....$2.25 to $2.75

A FALL IN CANNED GOODS.

Especially as to prices—is certain to please you. With the incoming tide of fresh vegetables and fruits, we must get rid of our canned stock—done as it is—and our reduced prices will make them move in a hurry. Mark you: they're just as good and sweet as the day they were "put up," but out they must go, to your great benefit. Hurry up if you want any.

TODAY'S POLICE NEWS

The rain of yesterday and last night drove many Weary Willies to cover and as a result about twenty victims spent last night in the slat house. Some were arrested for being drunk and others were simply placed in jail upon their own request in order that they might get in out of the rain.

Juan Candelaria was arrested last night charged with being drunk and disorderly. Candelaria appeared in police court with a very badly dislocated eye. He stated that he was assaulted by a fellow prisoner in the jail during the night, and being very drunk he could not protect himself. The judge did not take much stock in his story and he was fined $5. He paid up and was discharged.

Candelario Chaves and Augustin Chaves, two native farmers, residing near the city, came into town yesterday and proceeded to get on a jag. They succeeded and landed in jail as a result. They were each fined the customary $5 and trimmings, which they paid.

John Nelson, John Turner and Mike Bodenick, three knights of the road, were run in last night while hanging around the Santa Fe yards. They were released upon the promise that they would either go to work or leave town.

E. J. Walker, arrested the second time within a week charged with vagrancy, was sentenced to serve five days in jail.

Harry Casley, a man who has been hanging around the city for the past year and who is alleged to owe several large bank bills, was arrested yesterday for vagrancy and landed in the city jail. Judge Crawford sentenced him to serve ten days in jail.

The police last evening arrested Ben Thomas, erstwhile pipe fitter, who has been in trouble more or less during the past six months.

He is charged with being a suspect in the Haining avenue robberies which occurred last Sunday evening. There is also another charge against Thomas, that of obtaining goods from a local merchant by representing himself to be another man. It is thought that Thomas is a fit subject for the asylum, as he appears to be mentally unbalanced.

Rafael Rivera, arrested yesterday for alleged forgery, was released, as there was not sufficient evidence to hold him.

BACK FROM HIS SHEEP RANCH

Isidro Sandoval, the well known South Second street grocery merchant, has returned to the city from his range about fifty miles southwest of this city. He reports having sold 2000 sixty pound lambs to Colorado buyers, and 800 wethers, averaging a hundred pounds each, to William Farr of this city. Mr. Sandoval says he never saw the range in such fine condition, and stock of all kinds cannot be surpassed, especially sheep. It is the opinion of Mr. Sandoval that there will be plenty of good water and grass for stock through the winter.

International stock food is eaten by Dan Patch, the champion harness horse of the world, every day. He is owned by the International Stock Food company. E. W. Fee, 620 South Second street.
